PARENT PATCH

One of the key priorities for Caboolture Special School staff is supporting the social emotional development of students. This includes teaching students appropriate ways to behave and building their confidence and self-esteem as they learn to become active and involved citizens. Throughout 2014 we will be introducing a new approach to school behaviour called School Wide Positive Behaviour Support (SWPBS).

SWPBS is an evidence-based framework for establishing the social culture needed for schools to be effective learning environments for all students. SWPBS ensures that all students have the social and emotional skills needed to succeed in school and beyond. SWPBS assists schools to teach students expected social behaviours. This is the most effective response for preventing school-based behaviour problems including school violence and bullying. The SWPBS approach is a whole of school approach and needs to involve students, staff, parents and community in the planning and implementation.

We have established an organising committee which includes teachers and teacher aides and we are very keen to have parent input and involvement in the process as parents contribute a unique and very valuable perspective to discussions about student behaviour and learning. If you are interested in representing the school community by being part of the SWPBS committee, please contact Bronwyn at the office.

P - 3 DEPARTMENT NEWS

What a busy few weeks!

Teachers and Teacher-Aides in the P-3 Department have worked together to deliver a successful first visit for the students who will be joining our group next year. Some teachers have been assigned the role of leading a visiting group and others have kindly taken additional current students into their classes with the support of the students regular Teacher-Aide. Thank you all so much! We are ready for the final visits on November 25 and 26.

Students have been excitedly working on their final assessment pieces for English and Science. Teachers will be completing moderation of these subjects on Tuesday next week. It was wonderful to witness some year one students practicing their presentations of Weather Reports today!

For those parents who have requested an invitation to the 4KQ Christmas Party, to be held on Sunday 8 December, I can tell you that the invitations will be forwarded to you late next week. Thank you for the response we have had to this program. Unfortunately the opportunity for invitations has now passed.

Janet Bauer - P-3 Department Leader

STUDENT NEWS

Congratulations to Rhye C in 7-9F.

He recently had one of his art works entered into the Woodford Art Group Show.

He won 3rd prize for his age groups of 12-16yr olds. Well done Rhye!

The completed artwork with award.

7-9 DEPARTMENT NEWS

Celebrations!

The end of the year is a wonderful time to celebrate our students successes. There have been so many for each student and so varied in nature. Our end of year concerts and assemblies will be highlighting these celebrations and I encourage you to join us and invite family and friends.

HRE lessons have been happening in 7-9 classes and the response from students has been great. However this does lead to many more questions and often opens the door for students to begin conversations about areas of their "self" that they haven’t been able to have in the past. I encourage you to talk with your children about HRE and allow them to feel safe and secure about asking questions regarding this topic. Please talk with your child’s teacher if you need further information.

Amanda Turnbull - 7-9 Department Leader

TRANSITION DEPARTMENT NEWS

I am so pleased that the parent information days for incoming students for 2014 were such a great success. It was gratifying to hear the positive feedback from parents about our school’s curriculum focus and programs on offer. At the end of the sessions, several parents were relieved that their fears had been addressed and they were very excited to be enrolling their children at our school.

Once again, many thanks to Kaye and her great team for preparing the morning teas and giving the guests a chance to wind down over a cuppa and a chat.

This is a very busy week – schools camp at Mudjimba, and Fun Run at Sutton’s Beach on Friday.

Let’s hope the sun is shining!

Colleen Gough - Transition Department Leader

4-6 DEPARTMENT NEWS

On Monday, on the eleventh hour, of the eleventh day, of the eleventh month, we held a minute silence for Remembrance Day. We talked about why we have Remembrance Day and why we wear poppies on Remembrance Day.

We have some very excited students as they start to learn new dance and drama routines for their end of year concert items. I am really impressed with how the students shine when they are on stage.

I would like to start congratulating and celebrating our students, teachers and teacher aides as they begin to wrap up their English and Science units for the year. They have all put in a wonderful effort into creating and participating in their assessment pieces over the year. It will be great to hear how well they have progressed over the year in their end of year reports.

Sam Shervis - 4-6 Department Leader
